Cover Plan ()

SUBJECT: (Identification of operation) () Date:

1. () MISSION:

a. () Requirements. Identify the true designation of the unit. Explain command, administrative, and operational relationships with other true organizations. Summarize the mission as delineated in the Operations Plan (or similar planning document) upon which the Cover Plan will be based. Give the geographic location and provide geographic coordinates for lesser known foreign areas.

b. () Objective. Summarize the cover plan's objective and state what is to be accomplished. Specifically, why overt status is unacceptable; why covers for action alone would not suffice; what is to be protected, and from whom or what (i.e., affiliation with the U.S. Government, protection of the U.S. Army from the media, from HOIS, host country, and unwitting U.S. personnel, etc.).

c. () Base of operations. Indicate the base(s) of operations and third countries in which the cover will be used. Include description of locale, any other activities using cover if known, and any overt intelligence activities at the base locale.

d. () Covers for Action. Describe the generic Covers for Action that are envisioned. (Generally, Covers for Action are not associated with Cover for Status, necessitating the use of additional cover names and stories.)

2. () COVER FOR STATUS LEGEND:

a. () Include name of desired cover organization and desired parent MACOM, agency, or firm in order to provide backstopping, if required. State whether official or nonofficial cover for status will be necessary.

b. () Provide cover mission statement and cover story to be used in the local environment for the unit, and for individuals assigned. When conceiving individual cover for status, consideration should be given to previous assignments, schooling, etc., and should include provisions for adult dependents.

c. () Describe personnel to be employed in the cover unit to include number, positions versus requirements, TDA/TOE, and include cover specialties/grades.

d. () Indicate the date or timeframe that the cover unit should be operational and state reasons. Indicate if the operation should be phased in, and explain. State how long the cover may be required to exist and provide a deactivation plan.

e. () Plan for the possibility of cover unit compromise. Also provide action to be taken in the event that one or more covered personnel are compromised.

3. () COVER SUPPORT:

a. () Describe the necessary level of backstopping for unit.

(1) () Official Cover: UIC, DODAAC, etc.

(2) () Non-Official Cover: IRS Number, etc.

b. () Description of items required for cover, to include commercial bank accounts, vehicle registration, call forwarding, post office boxes, letterhead stationery, etc.

c. () Describe documentation requirements for personnel, i.e., drivers' licenses, credit cards, social security numbers, etc.

d. () Indicate how funding for the cover unit will be handled. Explain if assistance will be needed to provide special fiscal stations, financial accounts or fund transfers.

4. () ADMINISTRATIVE:

a. () Explain how the movement of personnel will be handled in and out of the cover organization. This should include assignment/departure and on local travel.

b. () Indicate if assistance will be necessary to identify qualified personnel for organization, and, if so, provide specifics.

c. () Describe any special training/orientation that will be needed for covered personnel.

d. () Indicate how the cover will be funded; if not ICF, attach copy of existing authorization.

e. () Describe how secure communications, technical or nontechnical, will be effected with higher headquarters.

g. () Explain if the use of Administrative Cover Names will be needed on true reporting documents.

5. () COORDINATION/LIAISON: Generally, all coordination associated with the development, maintenance, and disestablishment of Covers for Status will be accomplished by the Cdr, INSCOM (IASV-0). This includes the acquisition of cover documentation, both national and local level, and the liaison required for establishing specific levels of backstopping.
